

Erasmus+
Enriching lives, opening minds.

a) Slovenia is one of the richest countries with water in Europe. TRUE FALSE

b) Search for 5 species that are added to typical Slovenian dishes:

c) Write down 5 typical Slovenian dishes.

d) Does Slovenia look like a turkey in shape?

e) Which countries border Slovenia?

f) In Slovenia we have one of the largest intermittent lakes in Europe. It is called

_____.

g) In Slovenia you can find mainly sediment rocks. TRUE FALSE

Human fish is the only cave vertebrate in the world and at the same time the largest known cave-dwelling species in the world. YES NO

After heavy downpour the human fish used to be flown out of underground waters and the locals believed they were the descendants of cave dragons. YES NO

h) What type of climate do we have in Slovenia?

i) The forests cover 54% of Slovenian territory, its surface has been expanding in the past years.

Can you think of a reason why?

(A hint: If there weren't any human activities, the forests would cover almost all Slovenian territory).

j) Ljubljana was chosen as the green capital of Europe in 2016 YES NO

k) On the Slovenian territory you can find almost 3119 native plant species and 18 registered native animal species which is why we like to present ourselves as a bio-diverse country.

Find out a few examples of Slovenian native species.

l) Beekeeping is one of the oldest traditional craft-trades in Slovenia. TRUE FALSE

m) KOSTANJEVICA MONASTERY is a Franciscan monastery where Bourbon kings are buried.

How did Kostanjevica get its name?

Which Bourbon king is buried here? Why?

n) Ljubljana was chosen as the green capital of Europe in 2016 YES NO

AND FINALLY, LET'S REFLECT: IS SLOVENIA RICH IN BIODIVERSITY? YES NO

Please explain your answer.

